– License Agreement (name of the software: “Unlinkability metric”)

The goal of our research work is to redistribute and make available the use of this software in source or binary forms, and any data obtained by means of this software, with or without modification. There will be the following distribution condition: 1 license for 1 institution.

All requests for the software provided by Hochschule Darmstadt must be submitted in writing to the Hochschule Darmstadt. Principal Investigator by the researcher’s institution sign on behalf of the individual researcher or research unit (henceforth the “Licensee”). Only parties recognized – in writing - by the Hochschule Darmstadt are eligible to receive the software. To receive a copy of the software the Licensee must sign this document and agree to observe the restrictions listed in this License Agreement.

In addition to other possible remedies, failure to observe these restrictions may result in revocation of permission to use the software distributed by Hochschule Darmstadt.

The redistribution and the use of this software are permitted provided that the following conditions are met:

- [1] (s. names written below) are cited in any paper that makes any use of this software;
- redistribution must reproduce the above notice of copyright/intellectual property rights, this list of conditions, and the following disclaimer in the documentation and/or other materials provided with the distribution;
